

A. Yes, it is not good. All bathroom fixtures are old and need repairs. The furnace is very old and I believe that it would be best to sell the real estate and household effects and to invest the money in good securities and put some on interest account for Mrs. Falk.

Q. I presume that your dwelling is completely furnished and that you have ample furniture and household effects for the care and comfort of Mrs. Falk?

A. That is correct, I would have no room in my house for Mrs. Falk's household effects.
